SALEM, N. C.

FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1869.

How softly the sunlight of this beautiful Sabbath morning is resting on the earth, steeping all nature in a flood of loveliness. Yonder grove, with its budding trees of softest velvet green, embowering its pagoda shaped summer-house, brings to mind a place of worship in Eastern lands. The breath of violets perfumes the air, and the industrious bee is humming her way from flower to flower, sipping their hidden sweets. What an instructive lesson this little creature teaches us, of the marvelous adaptation and conversion by the great Creator, of the labor of even a tiny insect, to the use and benefit of man. Stepping to the Bee House, and removing the sliding cover from the glass aperture, we gain a view of the interior of the hive, and are filled with wonder, at the marvelous sight revealed to the eye. Cell joined to cell, all of the same mathematical accuracy of size and form, which marked them a thousand years ago. The same patient industry, from early morn to dewy eve, has been the characteristic ever of these busy little workers, since first known to man till they have justly passed into a symbol for industry, order and perseverance. The gay and brilliant flowers, which greet the eye in garden, field and meadow, are laid under contribution for their benefit. An incessant stream is hurrying outwards from the hive, in search of honeyed sweets, while an equal number is returning, laden with treasure collected from the fragrant vernal blossoms. For those who have made bee culture a study, many interesting points of observation present themselves, to which our attention has been drawn, and which we may dwell upon hereafter. We have in view, at present, merely to remind our country friends, that honey is of ready sale at home, and can easily be shipped, and that therefore it may be made an additional source of income and gain to the farmer, if properly managed. Within the limits of Salem, there must, we suppose, be at least 150 stands, and in good seasons they have all done well. This is proof that it would be difficult to overstock the country, granting to every farmer any number of stands. The range over and immediately around his farm would give them ample supply, without interfering or crowding upon those of his neighbor.—Whatever amount he could realize from the sale of his honey, would be almost clear profit; as the only expense would be some little loss of time, and an inconsiderable outlay for stands. A good old-fashioned maxim for money making has been "take care of the pennies, and the pounds will take care of themselves."

If all of our population, therefore, would strive to convert the many "littles," which are known to abound in the country, to good use, the aggregate result would be very considerable. We would counsel the owners of bees, therefore, to endeavor to increase their stock, and sell off to their neighbors when they themselves have as many as may be desirable. Instead of the former barbarous and wasteful mode of destroying the swarm to rob the hive of its contents, let a box be placed on the top of each stand, which, when filled, can be removed without the least trouble, and without any detriment to the swarm.—These boxes are generally filled very rapidly, and in consequence, the comb is of almost snowy-whiteness, and the honey clear and transparent, very much sought after in the market, and bringing the highest prices.

Before closing, we would add a valuable suggestion by a friend, that, in the country, the sour-wood should be spared as much as possible, and that our town-people, in planting shade trees, should make selection of the linden, as beautiful and ornamental, and, together with the first named, affording a bloom rich in honey, and much sought after by the bee.

Base Ball Club.

We take pleasure in noticing that a number of our young men have formed a Base Ball Club, bearing the name of SALEM BASE BALL CLUB, No. 1.

This game is "Town Ball" reduced to a system, and governed by scientific rules; is a graceful and invigorating pastime, and has become, within the past few years, our national game.

We had the satisfaction of witnessing several games on Saturday evening last, and were highly delighted with the performance. Of course, to most of our young men, the game is comparatively new, and they have much to learn; yet we are satisfied, from the interest and energy displayed on the occasion, they will soon be enabled to challenge other clubs for a trial of skill.

A pleasing feature in the Club Regulations, is the opposition to all harsh and ungentlemanly language. This, with the manifest determination to obey the rules, and abide by the decisions of the umpire, and the natural education of the muscles, enables us safely to bespeak for them the countenance and encouragement of this community.

But, above all, we can assure our young friends, that the ladies view this manly exercise with peculiar favor, and we hope that ere long the Club will be in a condition to extend to them an invitation to witness one of their games.

Mineral Spring.

We feel no disposition to pursue a subject to such an extent as to render it wearisome to our readers and patrons. We find, however, that ventilating a matter of public interest in the Press, is the surest mode of eliciting all the facts surrounding it.—We have made prior mention of mineral springs, and public attention, we are happy to find, has in consequence been drawn in that direction. Dr. Shaffner, possessed of an investigating mind, reported to us this morning, an analysis of the water from the spring near Mr. Nathaniel Vogler's residence, which had been made by him. Its constituent parts, as revealed by his test, indicate strong chalybeate, a trace of sulphur, and the presence of a third ingredient, which, by his first experiment, he has as yet been unable to determine satisfactorily to himself. He deems the water possessed of valuable properties, and we have ascertained since, that its use by quite a number of our citizens, has been attended by unmistakable evidences of medicinal value.

There are several of these springs known to exist in various localities near town, and our "city fathers" should look to it, and "bring them out," so that they may be tested, and the properties become known to the health and pleasure-seeking public. Our town is beautifully located, and we do not see why it should not become quite a summer resort.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See Proclamation of His Excellency, Gov. Holden, in relation to the act of the late General Assembly, making it a felony to go masked, disguised or painted.

See Corporation Tax notice.

We would again refer the reader to the well supplied establishment of Mr. B. F. Crosland, at Hall's corner. Mr. Crosland's is a new establishment, his goods are all fresh and genuine, and offered upon reasonable terms.

THE GALAXY.—Messrs. Sheldon & Co., have favored us with the January, February, March, April, and May numbers of this valuable monthly. For the past seven years this magazine of sterling literature has been steadily gaining public favor. We do not hesitate to recommend it to our readers as one of the best period.

CUBA.

THE REVOLUTION—ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, April 15.

Senor J. Valiente, agent of the Cuban revolutionists, has issued an address to the American people. After reciting the grievances the Cubans have long suffered under the civil and military tyranny of Spain, and their previous disasterous attempts to throw off the yoke of Spain, he says, the present revolution commenced on the 10th day of Obtober last, has steadily grown in strength, and promises to realize all the hopes of patriots.

The Cuban liberating army has been gradually increasing notwithstanding the losses consequent upon a steady campaign, and now comprises some 42,000 men, under Cespedes, who is commander-in-chief of that army, and head of the Republican Government.

Their lines run in a westerly direction to Sagua la Grande, without reaching the seaboard, either North or South, for want of the requisite armamen to hold it, but the territory pointed out is nearly two-thirds of the area of Cuba, in which slavery has been abolished, and in which the Spaniards control only the ground upon which they stand at bay.

This has been done by the patriots in a comparatively short time, notwithstanding their sad deficiency in war material, and leads to the belief that if they had been tolerably supplied with such material, their movements would now cover the remainder of the island, where no uprising has taken place for the want of arms.

AUGUSTUS FOGLE, Mayor.

April 21st 1869. 26–2t.

A PROCLAMATION,

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

IT IS MY DUTY TO PUBLISH THE following act, passed by the General Assembly of North Carolina at its recent session.

No person in the State can be "in any manner deprived of his life, liberty or property, but by the law of the land." Every man's house is his castle, into which no man can enter to molest or disturb him unless by authority of law. The bumblest and the poorest are entitled to this protection equally with the wealthiest and most exalted. The Courts will extend this protection, and the Executive is prepared to sustain the Courts, and to do everything within the sphere of his powers and duties to preserve peace and good order in society. Bands of men who go masked and armed at night causing alarm and terror in neighborhoods, and committing acts of violence on the inoffensive and defenceless, will be followed and brought to justice; depredators and robbers who live on the honest earnings of others, will be made to feel the penalty due to their crimes.

It is hoped the evils complained of, and which are confined to a few localities, will speedily cease. The great body of the people of the State are submitting quietly and peacably to established authority, and laboring assiduously to retrieve their fortunes, and improve their condition. I appeal to the great body of the people to unite with me in discountenancing and repressing the evils referred to. Public opinion properly embodied and expressed will be more effectual in repressing these evils, and in promoting the general good that will result from the complete establishment of peace and order in every neighborhood in the State, than the execution of the law itself against offenders in a few individual cases. I respectfully and earnestly invoke this public opinion. By the regard which we all have for the peace of society and the good name of the State, I call upon every citizen to unite with me in discountenancing disorders and v olence of all kinds, and in fostering and promoting confidence, peace and good will among the whole people of the State.

Done at our City of Raleigh this the 16th day of April one thousand [L. S.] eight hundred and sixty nine, and in the year of the independence of the United States the 93d.

W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.

By the Governor:

W. R. RICHARDSON, Acting Private Sec.

AN ACT MAKING THE ACT OF GOING MASKED, DISGUISED OR PAINTED, A FELONY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. Any person who shall disguise himself by painting his face, or by wearing any mask or any other device for the concealment of the face or person with intent to terrify or frighten any citizen of the community, or part thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine or imprisonment in the county jail, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons, either singly or in association with each other, who being disguised or masked or otherwise concealed in the manner described in the preceding section, shall commit any trespass or act by violence or force, which is now a misdemeanor by any statute of this State, or at common law, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and shall be imprisoned at hard labor in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than ten years.

SEC. 3. This act shall go into effect on its ratification, and the Governor shall cause the same to be published immediately.

Ratified the 13th day of April 1869.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE,

I, HENRY J. MENNINGER, Secretary of State, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original act on file in this office.

CAUTION! We desire to warn the dealers in and consumers of snuff generally, that since the war, certain tobacco manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks, so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them; as they are the losers thereby.—It will be found upon comparison that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of the many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application.

In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff, (Extra Scotch) is desired. P. LORILLARD, New York.

THE NEW-YORK TIMES.

A Political, Literary and Miscellaneous Newspaper.

The NEW-YORK TIMES, started in September, 1851,—has for many years been recognized as among the most successful, popular and influential newspapers in the country. It is still under the control and management of its original founders, who with greatly increased resources and experience, will spare no pains to extend and strengthen its claims upon the confidence and support of the public.

In its political discussions and preferences the TIMES is Republican—and supports the cardinal principles and leading measures of that party as on the whole best calculated to secure the peace and promote the prosperity of all sections of our common country. It was among the first to advocate the nomination and election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency, and will sustain, with all the ability it can command, the principles and policy of his Administration.

The TIMES will insist upon Reform in all branches of the public service,—economy in the administration of the Government,—the payment of the public debt, and the maintenance of the public credit,—the adoption of equal and impartial suffrage,—the removal of useless political disabilities,—the preservation of peace,—the elevation of labor,—the vindication of our national rights,—and, in general, such measures as will strengthen our Republican institutions in the confidence of our own people, and commend them to the respect and admiration of the rest of the world.

AS A NEWSPAPER, the TIMES will continue to be, as it has been, unsurpassed.

Its CORRESPONDENCE, by Telegraph and by Mail, from all parts of the world, will be full, prompt, reliable and interesting. In this respect it will maintain the high reputation it has thus far enjoyed.

Its REPORTS of proceedings in Congress and in the State Legislature,—of the Law Courts, social, political and literary associations, public meetings, and of whatever else may enlist or attract public interest, will be prepared with care and special attention to the convenience and instruction of the great body of the Reading Public. In its commercial, Financial, Real Estate and general Market Reports, special pains will be taken to embody the latest news, in the most reliable and acceptable form.

A LITERARY Department will be maintained, in which will be given Reviews and notices of all the important and interesting issues of the Press—and the Fine Arts, including Music, the Drama, Painting and Sculpture, will receive careful attention at the hands of competent and experienced critics.

The EDITORIAL Department of the TIMES will be devoted to the intelligent, temperate and useful discussion of the Current Events of the day, in every department of public activity and interest, with the general aim of instructing and guiding the public mind rather than exciting public passion or ministering to a morbid curiosity. Special care will be taken to exclude everything which can deprave the morals, or lower the taste from the great body of intelligent readers.

The Sunday Edition of the TIMES contains in addition to all the news of the day from eight to ten columns of interesting literary matter, selected with great care from the latest periodical literature of this country and of Europe, including the best stories, poems, &c., besides original articles by accomplished writers on subjects of general interest. It is therefore not only a NEWSPAPER, in the proper sense of the word, but a journal of ART, LITERATURE and FASHION; and we point see equaled to make the most complete and interesting newspapers in the country. The matter is contains always fresh and new, and is arranged in a full and attractive manner.

The TIMES issues three editions, all of very largest size, on large quarto sheets, containing fifteen columns, printed in clear

FARMERS, READ!

ALL KINDS OF AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

—:o:—

I HAVE the Agency from various Manufacturers of Agricultural Implements, in the States of North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio, for the following:

Horse Powers, Wheat Threshers and Cleaners, Mowing Machines, Mowers and Reapers, Cider Mills, Smut Machines, Wheat Fans, Fodder Cutters, Corn Shellers, Sorgo Mills, Ploughs, Harrows, Horserakes, Cultivators, Wheat Drills, &c., &c., &c.

BUCKEYE
REAPER AND MOWER

The Buckeye Reaper and Mower that I exhibited and sold last season has been still further improved since last year, and I have the Agency for the Counties of Forsyth, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin.

Farmers in general—and every where,
Who want a Reaper or Mower,
Will look for one with a history fair,
That does its work well, and with little repair,
Can be kept in good running order.

They want a machine that's been thoroughly tried
In all kinds of grass and of grain,
On the up-lands and low-lands, and on the hillside,
Where horses may walk and the driver may ride,
And the work shall be always the same.

The BUCKEYE machine has met this demand,
So say the thousand who use it;
For more than ten years, and all over this land
Its record's been known, and its merits well scanned,
As proof against all who abuse it.

IMPROVED CIDER MILL.

I shall have three different kinds of Cider Mills, and am already receiving orders for the coming season. I have the agency for the Counties of Forsyth, Surry, Stokes and Yadkin.

Three Different Kinds of WHEAT THRESHERS and CLEANERS.
